Fireworks Laws Have Changed

For those who enjoy shooting their own fireworks show, there are some significant changes to Utah fireworks laws this year. New aerial-type fireworks are now lawful. Also known as "multiple tube," "repeater," or "cake" fireworks, these devices can travel as high as 150 feet in the air. Remember to allow sufficient space from trees, carports, structures, power lines or other obstacles.

Firecrackers, M-80s, cherry bombs, bottle rockets, roman candles, single or reloadable mortars, and ground salutes are not allowed. Visit WJordan.com for more details.

Free Summer food for Kids

Kids can have free lunch & fun while school is out. For more information and to find a location near you, contact Utahns Against Hunger at uah.org or call 800-453-3663. No forms or ID required.

Military appreciation night July 2

Military personnel will receive a FREE ticket to the Western Stampede Rodeo July 2 when they come in uniform and present a military ID at the Arena Ticket Office, 8035 South 2200 West.

Register now for Citizen Police Academy

The West Jordan Police Department is gearing up for its next session of the Citizen Police Academy. The 13-week session begins Thursday, Aug. 11 at 6 p.m. Participants get an inside look at how the police department works and learn about different aspects of police work, including firearm safety, crime scene investigation, K-9, and SWAT.

Course highlights include a simulation gun scenario where participants armed with simulation guns and simulation ammo role play as officers tasked with clearing a building occupied with "bandits." Participants also learn about the latest in ID thefts, scams and frauds; narcotics; and gangs.

Classes are held each Thursday and last about three hours. Participants must be at least 18 years of age, live or work in West Jordan, and pass a basic background check. There is no fee. Additional information and an application can be found online at WJordan.com by clicking on "Departments," "Police" and then clicking on "Citizen Police Academy."
